Electment Suit Against Hamakua Mill Company--News of the Courts.

ONG KWAI won his case agreement entered into between Wong era and Diarrhoea Remedy, I am re-The Queen was not in court to hear the safe to take. For sale by Benson, verdict, which was brief and delivered Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents. verdict, which was brief and delivered

The action was brought in 1898. Wong Kwai complained that Liliuokalani, by her duly authorized agent, Joseph Heleluhe, by a memorandum of agreement in writing, dated on October 15, 1898, by him, agreed to lease to Wong Kwai a certain piece or parcel of land, being the ahupuaa of Lumahai, on the Island of Kauai, of the then Republic of Hawaii, for an annual rental lof $2,300, payable semiannually in advance for a term of ten years, beginning with January 1, 1900. On October 17th the plaintiff met Liliuokalani's agent, and accepted and ratified the agreement signed by Heleluhe, and prepared a lease of the land embodying MOUSE of W. G. IRWIN CO. on MERCHANT STREET, and near the fine the terms and conditions incidental to Wong Kwai made tender of $1,-500 rent for the first six months for said lease, but the defendant refused to accept the proffered rent or execute the lease, and threatened to lease the ahupuas to some one else.

Wong Kwai has been for many years the tenant of the land at Lumahai under Liliuokalani and her predecessors and cultivated a large portion of the same as a rice plantation. L. A. Thurston first appeared as the attorney for the plaintiff, but the case was recently conducted by Hatch and Silliman and Cecll Brown. Liliuokalani was enjoined ny the course of the trial from leasing the land to any one else.

ADDITIONAL MASTER'S REPORT.

The following additional report on the trustee's detailed and itemized accounts of receipts for the six months ending June 30, 1900, filed January 16, 1901, in accordance with the order of the court, of which the following is a summary, was filed yesterday by P. Danson Kellett, Jr.,

Rents, $51,649.65; taxes reimbursed, $5,-702.51; pasturage, $240; permissions to assign lease (expense), $65; firewood, $309; sales of land, $4,880; surveying costs returned, $1,123.88; coral and stone, $509.70; interest on notes, etc., $6,748.57; bills re-ceivable (investment), $64,625; taro lands rents, Keel, Kona, Hawaii, $28.90; law (costs of court returned), $49.90; balance on hand June 30, 1899, $4,654.85; total receipts, six months ending December 31, 1899, $51,230,15; grand total, $191,804.11. The master has verified the statement of accounts filed on August 6, 1900, and reports the same correct. The notes of James I. Dowsett for $50,000 have been paid in full, together with the interest due thereon. He finds there is yet due $8.33, which the trustees should be sur-charged with. The trustees, the master continues, also report the note of Gear & Lansing for $35,000 has been paid in full, together with interest due thereon, but the accounts only show that $32,300 have been paid on account of said note, leaving balance due thereon of $2,700. This amount is accounted for by the trustees as follows: The note was transferred by Gear & Lansing to G. Schumann on March 16, 1899, which the trustees accepted, but falled to credit to Gear &

Holmes and Stanley, attorneys for the trustees of the Estate of Bernice P. Bishop, have filed exceptions to the following findings of the master, accounts ending June 30, 1900: That the trustees be disallowed the sum of $716.65, being commissions at the rate of 21/2 per cent on $28,-666.75, and except to the finding that trustees should be disallowed the sum of $638.25, being commissions at the rate of 21/2 per cent on the sum of $25,530.77. DENIES ANCESTORS HAD POSSES-SION.

In the ejectment suit of Henry Smith vs. Hamakua Mill Co. the defendant, by his attorneys, Cecil Brown and Frederick W. Hankey, denies all and singular the allegations in the plaintiff's com-plaint. The defendant further states that neither plaintiff nor his grantors or their ancestors have had possession or occupation of the land described in plaintiff's complaint, nor any portion thereof, for the twenty years preceding the filing of said complaint, nor for any part of said term. The Circuit Judge yesterday allowed the defendant ten days in which to file its answer.
